sábado y el domingo. Lawndale Bilingual News: Estamos a pocos días de Cicero Fest, ¿Qué pueden las familias esperar este año? Patricia Salerno: Este año tenemos juegos mecánicos, una variedad de vendedores de comida, dos escenarios para música y tenemos diferentes géneros musicales. Tendremos regalos gratis. Aunque va a ser un fin de semana caluroso, sabemos que las familias se van a divertir mucho.

Lawndale Bilingual News: Este es el año 20 de Cicero Fest, ¿Alguna vez ha sentido la presión de superar el año anterior? Patricia Salerno: Siempre tratamos de hacer un festival más grande, gracias al Presidente Dominick y a la Junta por todo su apoyo. Este es siempre un gran evento comunitario; siempre estamos buscando hacer todo más grande y mejor. Siempre tratamos de superarnos y seguir las recomendaciones de los miembros de nuestra comunidad. En el Cicero Fest del primer año tuvimos la asistencia de 5,000 personas y ahora tenemos la asistencia de 20,000 a 30,000 personas asistiendo al festival. Esto se debe principalmente a la gente y al apoyo del presidente de Cicero.

Lawndale Bilingual News: En su opinión, ¿Qué es lo que hace que este festival tenga tanto éxito? Patricia Salerno: La comunidad asiste y hay un tremendo apoyo. Es un festival local organizado con la ayuda de nuestra Junta y la ayuda de nuestros residentes. Escuchamos sus necesidades y que les gustaría ver el próximo año. Hay participación comunitaria. Todo mundo tiene una voz. La entrada es gratis también, lo que sabemos ayuda a muchas familias. Este festival es una celebración de nuestra comunidad. Creo que por eso, Cicero Fest ha podido continuar por décadas. Lawndale Bilingual News: ¿Qué importancia tiene para usted asegurarse de que la comunidad de Cicero tenga voz y voto? Patricia Salerno: Oh, es sumamente importante.

Vivo en esta comunidad. Soy madre y se la importancia de tener eventos familiares. Escuchar sus opiniones demuestra cuánto les importa lo que sucede en su comunidad. Este festival está orientado a la familia, así que ¿por qué no escucharlos?

Lawndale Bilingual News: Para aquellos que aún no han asistido al Cicero Fest, ¿qué pueden esperar este fin de semana? Patricia Salerno: Que se preparen para divertirse en grande, bailar, comer y guardar maravillosos recuerdos.

Cicero Fest Returns

By: Ashmar Mandou

Cicero Fest returns for its 20th year ready for families to have a memorable weekend at the Cicero Fairgrounds. “We are so excited to see the reactions of families this weekend,” said Patricia Salerno, Special Events Director. “So much planning goes behind putting on a festival of this size and we are excited for residents to see all of the hard work. This is a great community event.” Salerno recently spoke with Lawndale Bilingual News about what families can expect at this year’s Cicero Fest. Cicero Fest will take place at the Cicero Fairgrounds from June 20th through 23rd. The festival will run from 5-10pm on June 20 and 21, and 10a-11pm on June 22 and 23. Live music will start at 6:30p on Thursday and Friday and at 2pm on Saturday and Sunday.

Lawndale Bilingual News: We are days away from Cicero Fest, what can families expect this year?

Patricia Salerno: This year we have a carnival, a variety of food vendors, we have two stages for music, and we have different genres of music. We will be having free giveaways. Although it’s going to be a hot weekend, we know families are going to have so much fun.

Lawndale Bilingual News: This is Cicero Fest’s 20th year, do you ever feel the pressure to outdo the previous year?

Patricia Salerno: We always try to put on an even bigger festival thanks to President Dominick and the Board for all their support. This is always a great community event; we are always looking to do things bigger and better. We do always try to outdo and take recommendations from our community members. During Cicero Fest’s first year, we had 5,000 people attending and now we have up to 20,000 to 30,000 people attending the festival. That is largely due to the people and to the support of our Town President.

Lawndale Bilingual News: In your opinion what makes this festival so successful?

Patricia Salerno: The community comes out and there is tremendous support. It’s a local festival, put on with the help of our Board and the help of our residents. We listen to their needs and what they would like to see happen in the next year. There is community involvement. Everyone has a voice. It’s also free entry, which we know helps families. This festival is a celebration of our community. I think that’s why Cicero Fest has been able to go on for decades.

Lawndale Bilingual

News: How important is it for you to make sure the Cicero community has a say?
Patricia Salerno: Oh, it’s extremely important. I live in this community, I am a mother; so I know the importance of having family-oriented events. Having their input shows just how much they care about what goes on in their community. This festival is family-oriented, so why not listen to them?

Lawndale Bilingual News: For those who have, yet to attend Cicero Fest what can they expect this weekend?
Patricia Salerno: Prepare to have fun, dance, eat, and make wonderful memories.

Pools Open at Chicago Park Districts

The Chicago Park District is proud to announce the opening of all outdoor and indoor pools for the start of the 2024 summer beaches and pools season due to strong seasonal lifeguard hiring. This year, due in large part to launching the "Your Perfect Summer Job" hiring campaign four months earlier than in 2023, and the creation of a new stipend-based Lifeguard Explorer Training Program, the Park District will offer a 6-day operational schedule for all indoor and outdoor pools. The regular Summer Pool Season will kick off earlier than 2023 and run through Labor Day, September 2nd. Summer pool schedules will be in effect starting on June 17th and can be viewed here. Pool hours will primarily run from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. with the majority of the pools being open on weekends. Opening the 22 beaches along the lakefront was the first phase of the beaches and pools season which started on May 24th. All beaches, including the Humboldt Park Beach, are staffed and open daily, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m., through Labor Day, Monday, September 2nd. Chicago Latino Caucus Calls Upon the City to End the 60-Day Migrant Exit Policy

Courtesy of Chicago Latino Caucus

On June 10th, the City's new arrival shelters began to evict families with children from its shelters, in accordance with the Mayor Johnson's 60-day Limited Stay Policy, which held off on evicting this population en masse until the school year ended. With an uptick in reports of new arrivals sheltering in parks and on the streets, we need answers regarding the ways in which the combined money for fiscal year 2024 from the City, State and County—$230M, $182M, and $70M respectively— are being used. City Council approved the extra $70M from the reserve fund balance in April of this year on top of the $150M budgeted for FY24 because the Johnson Administration gave its commitment in preventing unnecessary homelessness and displacement of new arrivals. In addition, the City applied on Wednesday for an additional $34.1M of FEMA Shelter and Services Program monies to keep up with operational costs. The Latino Caucus is disappointed to see the underutilization of the new arrival shelters— only 6,937 beds currently filled of the 15,000 that the three
