multitudes, sino espera inspirar la conversación política y cultural. Arts in the Dark, presentado por LUMA8 (Ilumina mis artes) celebrará su décimo aniversario mayor y mejor que nunca, honrando “10 Espíritus Creativos”, -diez personas destacadas de las artes y la cultura de Chicago que serán presentadas y homenajeadas en el desfile de este año. El Co-Fundador y Director Artístico de Arts in the Dark, Mark Kelly habló con Lawndale Bilingual Newspaper sobre el gran aniversario y que pueden esperar los espectadores.

Lawndale Bilingual News: Este fin de semana marca el 10º regreso anual del Desfile de Halloween Arts in the Dark, que atrae a miles de espectadores de todas partes. Desde su concepción a ahora en su 10º año, ¿Cuáles han sido los momentos más resonantes para ti?

Mark Kelly: Nuestros grupos del desfile se han vuelto más creativos e interesantes cada año. El arte y la energía que traen consigo es asombroso.

Lawndale Bilingual News: ¿Cómo describirías el Desfile de Halloween Arts in the Dark a Aquellos que todavía no lo han visto?

Mark Kelly: Que esperen una mezcla salvaje de máscaras y disfraces, espectáculos y marionetas, fuego y artes circenses, y teatro, música y danza emocionantes. No hay políticos que saluden ni carrozas preconcebidas en nuestro desfile, sino la creatividad inspirada de grupos artísticos provenientes de prácticamente todos los barrios de nuestra ciudad.

Lawndale Bilingual News: Este año, el tema es “10 Espíritus Creativos” ¿Cómo decide Luma8 el tema de este año?

Mark Kelly: Estamos entusiasmados de honrar a diez “Espíritus Creativos” son algunos de los más grandes artistas de Chicago y ayudan a hacer de Chicago una capital cultural de clase mundial. Estas creativas personas hacen que las artes brillen en nuestra gran ciudad. Ellos son:

Dee Alexander – extraordinario cantante de jazz; Bril Barret – bailarín de tap, Fundador y Director Artístico de M.A.D.D. Rhythms, NEA Heritage Fellow; Sandra Delgado – actriz, cantante, dramaturga, defensora de las artes; Hallie Gordon – aclamada defensora del teatro juvenil, ex productora artística y directora artística del teatro juvenil Steppenwolf; Gloria Groom - reconocida conservadora del Instituto de Arte, galardonada con la Legión de Honor francesa; J. Ivy – tres veces ganadora del Premio GRAMMY, artista de palabra hablada, música, productora, defensora de las artes; Margaret Murphy Webb – vocalista de jazz, educadora, productora, defensora de las artes, Fundadora y Directora Ejecutiva de la Coalición de Jazz del Sector Sur, Co-Directora del Año de Iniciativa de Música en Chicago; Tyrone Phillips – actor, director, Fundador y Director Artístico de Definition Theatre; Tim Samuelson - querido historiador cultural de Chicago; y Sentrock, un estimado y prolífico artista callejero de Chicago.

Lawndale Bilingual News: Más que solo un desfile, Arts in the Dark presenta muchas veces mensajes políticos y culturales. ¿Cómo esperas que el tema de este año promueva la conversación sobre política y cultura?

Mark Kelly: Recordamos a nuestra audiencia que la creatividad reside en cada barrio de nuestra ciudad. Nos movemos más allá de una estrecha concepción de las artes, muchas veces vista a través del prisma de grandes organizaciones culturales a una vista más amplia, más democrática y más inclusiva. Nuestros barrios están llenos de vitalidad creativa y vida cultural.

Lawndale Bilingual News: Hay una organización en particular que esperes ver este fin de semana?

Mark Kelly: Esa es una pregunta difícil. Tenemos tantos grupos excepcionales en el desfile. Con tantos grupos de baile de hip-hop maravillosos, una impresionante variedad de grupos del ballet folklórico, tantos contingentes que aportan sus elementos de espectáculo, música de todo el espectro y tanta creatividad que llega a la calle, ¿cómo podría elegir un solo grupo? Nuestro desfile, con sus 90 organizaciones y 4.000 artistas, crea una enorme exhibición de brillantez cultural.

LUMA8 (Ilumina Mi Arte) es una organización independiente, no lucrativa que florece para elevar a Chicago como punto focal de innovación artística para enriquecer la vida de sus ciudadanos y crear un impacto económico. Para más información, visitar www.artsinthedark.org, LUMA8.org.

This family-friendly Halloween celebration will feature spectacular floats, puppets, dancers, and musicians this Saturday, Oct. 19th on State Street. The dazzling production, once included in USA Today's 10th best Halloween parades in the U.S., not only aims to entertain the large crowds, but also aims to inspire the political and cultural conversation. Arts in the Dark, presented by LUMA8 (Light Up My Arts) will celebrate its tenth anniversary bigger and better than ever by honoring "10 Creative Spirits," -ten esteemed

Mark Kelly: Expect a wild mix of masks and costumes, spectacle and puppets, fire and circus arts, and exhilarating theater, music, and dance. There are no waving politicians and formulaic floats in our parade, but rather the inspired creativity of arts groups coming from virtually every neighborhood of our city.

Mark Kelly: We are thrilled to be honoring ten "Creative Spirits." They are some of

Tenth Annual Arts in the Dark Halloween Parade Celebrates Chicago's Creative Landscape

LUMA8 proudly celebrates the 10th Annual Arts in the Dark Halloween parade, a family-friendly happening featuring unique floats, spectacle puppets and all forms of creative performance taking place Saturday, October 19, from 6-8pm. This magical evening procession will celebrate ten years of honoring Halloween as the "artists' holiday" and the parade as an art form largely lost in American culture. Where parades often feature political and commercial messages, the purpose of the Arts in the Dark parade is solely to uphold and uplift Chicago's creative communities. This parade draws together participants from major cultural organizations, inspiring youth programs, and aspiring artists in every field and from every ward of Chicago. This dazzling production – included in USA Today's 10 best Halloween parades in the US and named 'One of the best Halloween celebrations in the world' by UK-based Wanderlust magazine – annually delights an audience of 60,000+ gathered along historic State Street, from Lake to Van Buren Streets. For more information visit www.artsinthedark.org, LUMA8.org.

Communities in Schools of Chicago Releases First Comprehensive Report on Bullying and Provides Solutions

This October, in recognition of Bullying Prevention Month, CIS of Chicago is releasing an 18-page “Bullying Brief,” which examines current reports about youth social media use, cyberbullying, and mental health and provides perspectives from CPS administrators, community organizations, and CIS school-based team members about youth bullying – and what can be done to stem the issue, both inside and outside of the school building. The report also offers three concrete actions that any Chicagoan can take to support young people and create environments where they thrive, including attending CIS’ Youth Mental Health First Aid course. Anti-bullying programs and resources are consistently the number one request from the nearly 240 schools that CIS serves. In the last five years, though, the problem has only worsened by other external factors, such as a global pandemic that closed school doors, increased feelings of isolation, and prompted warnings of a youth mental health crisis. Even worse, since the pandemic, social media use among young people has increased, causing an even greater decline of their mental health. These factors prompted the U.S. Surgeon General Vivek Murthy this year to call for a warning label on social media platforms following separate Surgeon General advisories on Social Media and Youth Mental Health in 2023 and Protecting Youth Mental Health in 2021. “Our long history in the city and our deep relationships with schools and community organizations have given us unique insight into how national issues are being felt by our young people and being addressed by our partners in the school building,” said Jane Mentzinger, CIS of Chicago CEO. The report is available for anyone to download on CIS of Chicago’s website at <https://www.cisofchicago.org/bullying-brief/>

Communities in Schools of Chicago Publica el Primer Informe Integral Sobre el Acoso Escolar y Ofrece Soluciones

Este octubre, en reconocimiento del Mes de Prevención al Acoso, CIS of Chicago publica un “Bullying Brief, de 18 páginas que examina los actuales reportes sobre el uso de los medios sociales en los jóvenes, el cyberbullying, y la salud mental y ofrece perspectivas de los administradores de CPS, organizaciones comunitarias y miembros del equipo escolar del CIS hablan sobre el acoso juvenil y qué se puede hacer para frenar el problema, tanto dentro como fuera del edificio escolar. El reporte ofrece también tres acciones concretas que cualquier residente de Chicago puede tomar para apoyar a los jóvenes y crear un ambiente donde se prospere, incluyendo un curso de CIS, de Primeros Auxilios en Salud Mental en los Jóvenes. Programas y recursos anti-bullying son constantemente la petición número uno de cerca de 240 escuelas a las que sirve CIS. En los cinco últimos años, aunque el problema solo ha empeorado por otros factores externos, como una pandemia universal que cerró las puertas de las escuelas, aumentó los sentimientos de aislamiento y propició advertencias de crisis en salud mental. Inclusive peor, desde la pandemia, el uso de los medios sociales entre los jóvenes ha aumentado, provocando un deterioro aún mayor de su salud mental. Estos factores llevaron al Cirujano General de EE. UU., Vivek Murthy, a solicitar este año una etiqueta de advertencia en las plataformas de redes sociales luego de las advertencias separadas del Cirujano General sobre Redes sociales y la Salud

Mental de los Jóvenes en el 2023 y Protección de la Salud Mental de los Jóvenes en el 2021. “Nuestra larga historia en la ciudad y nuestras profundas relaciones con las escuelas y las organizaciones comunitarias nos han dado una visión única de cómo nuestros jóvenes sienten los problemas nacionales y cómo los abordan nuestros socios en el edificio escolar”, dijo Jane Mentzinger, directora ejecutiva de CIS de Chicago. El reporte está disponible para todos descargándolo en la red de CIS of Chicago en <https://www.cisofchicago.org/bullying-brief/>

Por Ashmar Mandou

Al acercarse el término del Mes de la Herencia Hispana, los Comisionados del Condado de Cook y la Oficina de la Presidente de la Junta del Condado de Cook, Toni Preckwinkle, celebraron el 15 de octubre en el vestíbulo del Edificio del Condado. El evento se ofreció para celebrar no solo el Mes Nacional de la Herencia Hispana del 15 de septiembre sino para celebrar la aprobación de la Resolución 24-5259. La Resolución, adoptada durante las reuniones de la junta del Condado de Cook en Septiembre, fue copatrocinada por los Comisionados Frank J. Aguilar, Alma Anaya y Anthony Quezada y fue aprobada por unanimidad por la Junta de Comisionados del Condado de Cook.

“Las personas hispanas y latinas de cada generación han hecho inmensas contribuciones a través de su valeroso servicio en el gobierno, las artes, la educación, las matemáticas, la ciencia, la literatura, la tecnología y la filantropía – tanto en el Condado de Cook como alrededor del mundo”, dijo la Presidente Toni Preckwinkle.

“Los latinos y los hispanoamericanos han hecho contribuciones en cada esquina de nuestro Condado de Cook. Estamos orgullosos de nuestra herencia, de nuestra cultura y las comunidades que hemos construido y sostenido en Estados Unidos”, dijo el Comisionado Frank J. Aguilar. “Esta es una oportunidad para celebrar nuestra historia compartida. Es una celebración de nuestra vida y cultura en el presente. Es una promesa continuar honrando nuestra cultura y las contribuciones en el futuro. Esto fue también una oportunidad para celebrar, para escuchar la música de nuestras comunidades y honrar a los hispanos y latinoamericanos que han contribuido tanto a nuestro país”.

Hay más de 50,000 negocios propiedad de latinos e hispanos en el Condado de Cook y esta vivacidad empresarial ha ayudado a revitalizar numerosas comunidades en Chicago y comunidades suburbanas, de acuerdo a la Oficina del Condado de Cook. La economía del Condado de Cook siempre ha sido un imán para los trabajadores inmigrantes de todo el mundo y los inmigrantes de México, el Caribe, Centroamérica y Sudamérica en particular y el Condado de Cook continúa recibiendo y valorando las contribuciones de los inmigrantes. “La comunidad hispana y latina es un fuerte pilar de nuestro país, contribuyendo al crecimiento económico y social en las últimas décadas. Me siento orgullosa de representar a una de las comunidades latinas más grandes de Illinois, asegurando que nuestras voces y nuestras experiencias de vida son consideradas al nivel del condado. Celebramos la resistencia de nuestra gente no solo este mes, sino todos los días”, dijo la Comisionada Alma Anaya. Crédito Fotográfico: Oficina del Condado de Cook

State Senator Cervantes Serves Over 250 at Grocery and Energy Resource Fair

State Senator Javier Cervantes and Nicor Gas hosted a grocery and energy resource fair at Morton College on Thursday, giving over 250 residents the opportunity to learn about their energy rates, sign up for utility bill assistance and receive free groceries. “We are here to help residents in need and make sure they have the opportunity to find resources that help them at home and save them time and money,” said Cervantes (D-Chicago). “I want to thank our partners from Nicor, CEDA, and other agencies who were here to help residents with their utility bills and facilitate a great event where we could give back to our community.” Over 250 residents who registered for Thursday’s event at Morton College were able to collect grocery care boxes curated by TopBox. Attendees also connected with Nicor representatives to learn about energy efficiency programs, residential and income-eligible assistance, energy bill assistance programs, job openings and general energy and natural gas education. In Illinois, nearly 1.5 million people live at or below the poverty level – more than 12 percent of the state’s population. Many of these families struggle to afford basic essentials, including heat in their homes in the winter, food, housing and medical assistance.

Cook County Officials Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month

By: Ashmar Mandou

As Hispanic Heritage Month draws to a close, the Cook County Commissioners and the Office of the Cook County Board President Toni Preckwinkle celebrated on October 15th in the lobby of the Cook County

Building. The event was held to celebrate not only September 15 - October 15 as National Hispanic Heritage Month, but to also highlight the passage of Resolution 24-5259. The Resolution, adopted during the September Cook County board meetings, was co-sponsored by Commissioners Frank J. Aguilar, Alma Anaya, and Anthony Quezada, and was passed unanimously by the Cook County Board of Commissioners.

“Hispanic and Latine individuals of every generation have made immense contributions through their courageous service in government, the arts, education, mathematics, science, literature, technology and philanthropy – both in Cook County and around the globe,” said President Toni Preckwinkle. “We’re proud to celebrate that legacy all month long.” The event began with remarks from President Preckwinkle and Commissioners Aguilar, Anaya, and Quezada, before Mariachi Los Jinetes of Morton East High School from Cook County’s 16th District gave a special musical performance.

“Latine and Hispanic Americans have made contributions throughout every corner of Cook County. We are proud of our heritage, of our culture, and the communities we have built and sustained in America,” said Commissioner Frank J. Aguilar. “This is an opportunity to celebrate our shared history. It is a celebration of our lives and culture in the present. It is a promise to continue honoring our culture and contributions in the future. This was also an opportunity to celebrate, to listen to the music of our communities and honor to Hispanic and Latine Americans who have contributed so much to our country.”

There are more than 50,000 Hispanic and Latine-owned businesses across Cook County and this entrepreneurial vibrancy has helped revitalize numerous communities in Chicago and suburban communities, according to the Office of Cook County. Cook County’s economy has always been a magnet for immigrant laborers from all over the world and immigrants from Mexico, the Caribbean, Central America and South America in particular, and Cook County continues to welcome and value the contributions of immigrants. “The Hispanic and Latino community is a strong pillar of our County, contributing to the social and economic growth in the last decades. I am proud to represent one of the largest Latino communities in Illinois, ensuring our voices and life experiences are considered at the County level. We celebrate the resiliency of our people not just this month, but every day,” said Commissioner Alma Anaya.

CPS Celebrates Next Steps to Bolster Academic Offerings at North Lawndale Schools

Chicago Public Schools (CPS) officials celebrated the next milestone in a District-community collaborative project to provide high-quality science, technology, engineering, arts, and math (STEAM) programming at three North Lawndale schools. Newly approved TIF funding – greenlighted last week by Chicago City Council – paves the way for a slate of STEAM-related academic enhancements and building renovations for Chalmers STEAM Elementary School, James Weldon Johnson STEAM Elementary School, and The Collins Academy STEAM High School. The planned improvements will further the District's goals to provide students with a well-balanced education that deepens their knowledge in STEAM subjects, starting in elementary school and continuing through high school – yielding more graduates prepared for in-demand STEAM careers. CEO Martinez, District and local officials, including Alderperson Monique Scott, Alderperson Jason Ervin, Cook County Commissioner Michael

Scott Jr., and Community Action Councils members convened Tuesday morning at The Collins Academy STEAM High School to celebrate the recent City Council-approved $10 million in TIF funding, in addition to a $30 million allocation in the CPS Fiscal Year 2025 capital budget for an anticipated $40 million total for renovations at all three schools.

Terry Higgins, Building Commissioner of the Town of Cicero (the "Town"), has determined that the Property is open and vacant and is an immediate and continuous hazard to the surrounding community. You are hereby notified that unless within thirty (30) days of this notice immediate steps are taken to demolish, repair or enclose this building and remove all garbage, debris, and hazardous, noxious or unhealthy materials from the building and the Property, the Town shall be authorized to, intends to and will take all necessary action to eliminate this hazard, WHICH SPECIFICALLY WILL INCLUDE DEMOLITION OF THE STRUCTURES ON THE PROPERTY. Iconic Halloween Parade Returns...

– jazz vocalist, educator, producer, arts advocate, Founder and Executive Director of the South Side Jazz Coalition, Co-Chair of the Year of Chicago Music initiative; Tyrone Phillips – actor, director, Founder and Artistic Director of Definition Theatre; Tim Samuelson – Chicago’s beloved cultural historian; and Sentrock – an esteemed and prolific Chicago street artist

Lawndale Bilingual News: More than just a parade, Arts in the Dark often features political and cultural messages. How do you hope this year’s theme moves the conversation around politics and culture forward? Mark Kelly: We remind our audience that creativity resides in every neighborhood of our city. We move beyond a narrow conception of the arts, often viewed through the prism of large cultural organizations to a view that is more expansive, democratic, and inclusive. Our neighborhoods are brimming with creative vitality and cultural life.

Lawndale Bilingual News: Is there a particular organization you look forward to seeing this weekend? Mark Kelly: That is one tough question. We have so many outstanding parade groups. With so many wonderful hip-hop dance troupes, a stunning array of Ballet Folklorico groups, so many contingents bringing their spectacle elements, music across the spectrum, and so much creativity coming to the street – how could I possibly pick one group? Our parade, with its 90 organizations and 4,000 performers, creates a huge display of cultural brilliance.

LUMA8 (Light Up My Arts) is an independent not-for-profit that strives to elevate Chicago as a focal point of artistic innovation to enrich the lives of its citizens and create economic impact. For more information visit www.artsinthedark.org, LUMA8.org.
